

Navigation

Signposts are features that help users figure out their immediate surrounding

Simple common signposts include

- Window title
- Logos
- Other branding devices (color schemes, tag lines)
- Icons
- Selection indicators

For example:

In Spotify's left sidebar,

the current playlist or album is highlighted with a lighter tone and users know exactly which playlist they are browsing

Navigation Models

Amazon

at first

degrees

choice

being made

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

choice

- Hub and Spoke -

Instagram browser user can go to Profile, search, Reels or Messages

- Fully connected -

Facebook browser user can directly jump to Marketplace, Watch, Groups or Profile. And from any of those sections, they can jump directly to any other

- Flat - level

- Stepwise -

Online Checkout Process, the user must proceed in order through steps: Cart, Address, shipping method, Payment, Review order, confirm purchase